SECTION 1: PREAMBLE

1.1. PURPOSE OF INTERNAL RULES & REGULATIONS

The purpose of the Internal Rules & Regulations is to ensure the organization's smooth running and proper functioning. The Internal Rules & Regulations will provide guidelines on maintaining the organization's vision, harboring a close and supportive relationship between the bureau/board and the delegates, resolving confusion, facilitating daily activities, and improving the management of the bureau/board. The following Internal Rules & Regulations effectively serve as the Bylaws of this organization.

1.2. LIVING DOCUMENT

The Internal Rules & Regulations should serve as a living document for the organization's officers, presidents of associations, and delegates. This is a set of rules that every association/member should abide by. The Internal Rules & Regulations shall be available to every SAGI association/member of the organization through the website or provided via electronic mail.

SECTION 2: NAME

2.1. OFFICIAL NAME

The official name of the organization is Active Solidarity Ltd. The French translation of Active Solidarity is Solidarité Agissante (SAGI). Active Solidarity, Ltd. Member Associations refer to the organization as "SAGI."

SECTION 3: MISSION AND OBJECTIVE

SAGI's mission is to create a network of people living in the United States of America ("US"), for the purpose of helping families within the community to alleviate the financial burden of losing a loved one.

SAGI's objectives include:

-Creating an electronic database of associations organized in the US.

-Informing all member associations, through their president and delegates in case of the death of a member association's individual member.

-Facilitating the repatriation of the remains or burial of individuals who died while belonging to association members of SAGI.

-Collecting contributions (donations) from each SAGI member association.
Transferring the collected contributions to the funeral home, and to the beneficiary in case there is a balance after administrative costs are subtracted.

SECTION 4: OFFICERS

SAGI's Bureau / Board of Directors includes a: President, Vice President(s), Secretary- General(s), a Treasurer, and an Auditor. The Bureau/Board may appoint other officers. Officers whose authority and duties are not prescribed in the Bylaws shall have the authority and perform the duties prescribed, from time to time, by the Board of Directors. All officers of the SAGI Bureau are co-opted by the Founding Members of SAGI, and approved by the Bureau / Board of Directors.

SECTION 5: GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly meets when summoned by the SAGI Bureau/Board of Directors. The SAGI Bureau/Board of Directors decides the location and time of the General Assembly.
Presidents and delegates from each association should take part in the General Assembly.

SECTION 6: REGULAR BUREAU/BOARD MEETING

The SAGI Bureau/Board meets at least three (3) times a year for periodic review, to ensure the organization operates in a manner consistent with SAGI's mission and objective.
In case of emergency, the President shall summon a meeting.

SECTION 7: EXTRAORDINARY BUREAU MEETING

SAGI Bureau/Board meets 48 hours following the announcement of the death of an individual belonging to a member-association of SAGI to:

Officially announce the death of the individual.
Verify and send out all required documents to validate the death.
Prepare and send out the contribution table to collect funds from member associations.

SECTION 8: MEMBERSHIP

Membership in SAGI is free and voluntary, however, only associations can be members of SAGI.
Any association that becomes a member of SAGI must agree to subscribe to SAGI's Internal Rules and Regulations.
Individual SAGI association members should be groups composed of people living in the US.
Member associations will be assisted with contributions in case of death of individuals belonging to the respective member association, if they remain in good standing meaning they pay administration and/or matriculation fees, among other requirements stated herein.
SAGI accepts as members any associations, groups or families of any size.
The individuals members have no standing to make claims or raise issues with SAGI (including but not limited to claims regarding the operation of the organization and the management of SAGI funds.
Only SAGI member associations or groups in good standing may make such demands of SAGI.

A SAGI membership is considered "active" once a SAGI matriculation number is assigned and published by email.
It is at the discretion of SAGI to accept or decline an association's membership to SAGI, however, individuals may be members of SAGI Member Associations at the Association's discretion.
Any association member can voluntarily withdraw from SAGI by submitting a letter or email to SAGI Bureau/Board.
SAGI has the authority to terminate the membership of any member or association whose behavior may disrupt or destabilize the organization.

SAGI members with 10-year membership can keep their membership worldwide.
But will need to show proof of citizenship or permanent residency to the US if living overseas.
If he or she passes away in his or her country of origin, the contribution will be of $10,000

SECTION 9: MATRICULATION

Matriculation numbers are attributed and published at least ninety (90) days after receiving a new registration.
No member association may have two matriculation numbers. It is the responsibility of each president/delegate of each association to ensure that their member association is not registered twice.
Any member who was previously a SAGI member can be reinstated after paying all missed contributions, in addition to a return fee, and observe the waiting period of ninety (90) days after SAGI's receipt of the return fee payment.
Names and dates of birth of individuals who belong to SAGI member associations should be provided exactly as they are written on official documents and without abbreviations. Name changes of deceased individuals are not accepted after the death announcement.

SECTION 10: NEW MEMBER REGISTRATION

Requests for new member registration can be submitted at any time.
SAGI accepts associations or groups of any size.
Each association's main delegate is responsible for registering his association's individual members through his dashboard on SAGI web application www.mySagi.org.
There is a waiting period of at least ninety (90) days, after receiving a new registration.

SECTION 11: LIST UPDATE

All update requests (addition withdrawal or transfer) should be performed in the association/delegate dashboard of SAGI web application www.mySagi.org.
All name Correction, Name Changes, contact information updates are done by filing the forms S4 and S6 that you can download from SAGI website www.mySagi.org.
Use a fresh email to submit your forms! Failure to use fresh email may result in a delay of your request – DO NOT use reply to submit your form.
Associations are encouraged to keep their list updated as much as possible.
SAGI does not accept any name correction or name change of the deceased member after his/her death.

11.1. ADDITION OF INDIVIDUALS WITHIN MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

All requests for addition of individuals belonging to member associations of SAGI should be done directly on the association/delegate dashboard on SAGI web application www.mySagi.org.
Names and date of birth used to register individual members should be exactly as they appear on their official document (ID, passport, etc.).
There is a waiting period of at least ninety (90) days, after registering each individual member.
Individuals added to member associations of SAGI must pay their Administration and Matriculation fees fifteen (15) days after receiving the invoice.

11.2. WITHDRAWAL

All requests to withdraw individual members from SAGI association members should be done by the delegate of the association directly on the association/delegate dashboard on SAGI web application www.mySagi.org.
Once the withdrawal recommendation is submitted by the delegate, all individuals recommended to be removed will be removed by the time the next contribution table is created.

No withdrawal within the contribution period should affect the contribution. The Cutoff date for the new contribution is set between the 5th and 8th of each month.

11.3. NAME CORRECTION

All requests for name corrections should be done by submitting Form S4 – SAGI Name Correction.
Name corrections should be done for minor errors such as typos. If a member individual's name has changed due to:
